

How to Prepare Using Textbooks

Read the text three times. The first time, take notes on information you are not familiar with. The second time, outline the chapter and identify the objectives. The third reading should focus on the vocabulary: ASL signs for concepts, vocab a student will see on a test, and proper names that will be difficult to spell.

Notes:
Outline:	Objectives:
	Vocabulary:
	Proper Names: